

Dentons Asia Regional Employment Newsletter - September 2020 Edition

DENTONS

September 2020

Dentons is pleased to present the first issue of the Asia Regional Employment Newsletter, with updates on employment matters in the jurisdictions of Singapore, Hong Kong and China covering proposed legislation amendments, significant court decisions, and other topical issues. If you wish to understand more about the potential impact of any matters introduced in this newsletter to your organisation, please contact the relevant Dentons lawyers in the relevant region, who will be happy to assist with any queries you might have.

In this issue

Singapore

Singapore's foreign worker dilemma – recent changes to Singapore's regulatory framework governing the hiring of foreign workers.

Hong Kong

Hong Kong improves anti-discrimination legislation.

Hong Kong passed bill to extend statutory maternity leave.

China

Data compliance in human resource management.
