

Enoch Wong joins Dentons as a new Capital Markets Partner

DENTONS

August 26, 2016

Hong Kong —Dentons Hong Kong is pleased to announce that Enoch Wong has joined the Firm as a partner in the Capital Markets group, bringing with him a wealth of experience from the law firm, Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom.

Enoch Wong specializes in Capital Markets and Corporate Finance matters. He advises domestic and international companies on their IPOs on the Main Board of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, as well as on M&A transactions, placings and other compliance matters in relation to listed companies.

"I am very excited about joining Dentons in Hong Kong. The firm has an innovative global expansion strategy which is a vision that I share. I look forward to working with people across Dentons' broad network and partnering with Gordon Ng, Asia Pacific Head of Corporate Finance in Hong Kong to drive the capital markets practice forward." Enoch said.

Commenting on the hire, Hong Kong Managing Partner Keith Brandt said "The hiring of Enoch Wong is an important step in further strengthening our outstanding ECM practice and improving our competitive edge in this key market."

Gordon Ng added, "We are delighted to welcome Enoch Wong to our growing capital markets practice. He will add tremendous value to our Firm, playing a key part in Dentons' overall strategy to continue developing our capital markets capabilities."
