On 16 January 2019, Dentons Hong Kong team led by Managing Partner, Keith Brandt, together with key partners from Dentons wider China region and the Greater Bay Area (GBA), attended the Dentons China region reception in Shenzhen.

At the reception, Dentons Hong Kong, Shenzhen, Guangzhou and Zhuhai offices officially announced the establishment of GBA dedicated arbitration team, to align with the Dentons GBA initiative, aiming at better serving our clients' legal needs within the region.

With the Greater Bay Area becoming a national strategy, Dentons strongly believes that it is crucial for us, as the largest international law firm, to anticipate and be ready to support our clients in the region. We expect to see an increased demand for arbitration services. This team is structured to spur discussions on key legal issues and provide innovative and practical solutions to our clients in the region.

"This is an important collaborative initiative, between the international arbitration specialists in Dentons Hong Kong, Shenzhen, Guangzhou and Zhuhai offices, who for the first time have come together realising local synergies. Our teams have a wealth of experience in GBA and have advised on a full range of high-value, complex, multi-jurisdictional business and financial disputes. We are ready and excited to leverage our global and local arbitration expertise in the region," said Keith Brandt.
