

Dentons adds investment funds counsel in Hong Kong

DENTONS

October 20, 2020

Hong Kong —Dentons Hong Kong LLP is expanding its investment funds practice with the addition of Simon Wong, as a Counsel. Simon focuses on financial services and investment funds, covering private equity, credit, real estate, infrastructure, venture capital, hedge and RMB-USD funds, representing both managers and investors. He was recognized as a “Next Generation Lawyer” for Investment Funds in Hong Kong by The Legal 500 Asia Pacific for 2017, 2018 and 2019. Prior to joining the firm, Simon practiced law at MinterEllison in Sydney and Dechert and K&L Gates in Hong Kong. He is qualified in Hong Kong, New York and New South Wales.

“We’re delighted to welcome Simon to Dentons Hong Kong,” said Keith Brandt, Managing Partner of the Hong Kong office. “His addition will add depth to our Hong Kong office and create greater opportunities for our Hong Kong transactional practice.”

“Simon will be an excellent addition to the firm,” said Gordon Ng, Partner and Head of Corporate Finance in Dentons Hong Kong. “We are focused on building a premier corporate practice in Hong Kong that complements our private equity practice in other regions. His addition is another significant step in the growth of our transactional practice globally.”

“I’m excited to join the Dentons Hong Kong team,” said Simon Wong. “Dentons Hong Kong has a compelling transactional platform that will serve as a strong foundation as I begin the next phase of my career.”
